MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Voter Turnout Still Strong for Second Advance Voting Opportunity in Qualicum Beach!

Qualicum Beach, BC – Participation continues to increase for the second day of Advance Voting, which was held today, as part of the Town of Qualicum Beach General Election. Advance Voting was open for eligible electors from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm today at the Qualicum Beach Civic Centre. The Town's Chief Election Officer reports that 1,248 electors chose to vote at the second day of Advance Voting. This amount, combined with the first day of advance voting (880) brought the total number of ballots cast to 2,128 over the two days (October 10 and 17).

Chief Election Officer, Heather Svensen, reports "Voter turnout for the two advance voting opportunities exceeded the 2014 voter turnout at advance voting by 406 votes."

The Qualicum Beach Civic Centre, 747 Jones Street, Qualicum Beach, BC is designated as the Voting Place for General Voting Day on October 20, 2018. Voting is open from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm. If you wish to avoid the most popular times on Voting Day, cast your ballot in the late afternoon or evening. Eligible electors that are not on the List of Registered Electors can, after providing identification, register at the Voting Place immediately before voting.

For further information on voting, visit the Town's website at www.qualicumbeach.com, refer to the Special Election Edition of the Noteworthy, email: hsvensen@qualicumbeach.com, call: 250.738.2207 or 250.927.5010, or visit Town Hall.
