Town of Qualicum Beach Honours Volunteers Dave Field named recipient of 2019 Above and Beyond Volunteer Award

MEDIA RELEASE

Qualicum Beach, BC – On Thursday, September 19, 2019, Town Council and staff honoured community volunteers at the Town of Qualicum Beach Volunteer Appreciation Reception held at the Qualicum Beach Civic Centre.

“The Volunteer Appreciation Reception is our opportunity to express our appreciation for the many volunteers who dedicate hours, days, months and even years of their lives to bettering the community of Qualicum Beach”, said Mayor Wiese, noting “in Qualicum Beach, local government fills the role of facilitator and supporter, enabling the volunteers. We are so lucky to have concerned volunteers who see a need and have the conviction to try and meet it. Volunteers care for others and make a difference.”

The community benefits from a wealth of experience and talent amongst its residents who are willing to share of themselves. Council recognized the time and effort contributed to the Town by its volunteers.

The volunteer groups and committee members honoured this year are listed on the 2019 Volunteer Appreciation Recipients award displayed in the Town Hall foyer, with the Above and Beyond Volunteer Award plaque.

Dave Field was presented the Above and Beyond Volunteer Award, chosen by Council for his involvement over the past 16 years with the Seaside Cruizers and his dedication to the Town of Qualicum Beach.

The afternoon closed with a sincere thank you from Council on behalf of the whole community.
